Dear Stacy Burnette,

I'm sorry for replying so late because of a long public holiday.We pay a lot of attention to this issue.The domain names you mentioned were processed by us before and you'll find most of them have been placed an Hold status or canceled after registrants failed to correct WHOIS information.maybe we have misunderstood the term "reasonable steps" and just thought disabling the domain names was enough before.Now we are carrying out a project to verify all of data in our WHOIS database and improve workflow of processing complained domain names,we hope this problem can be solved completely,so we would like to communicate with you on this issue and take your suggestions that will help us solve this issue.and any supervision is also welcome.May I call you at 23:30 Wednesday,October 8,2008 UTC(maybe 16:30 in your place)?If the time I refer to is not available,could you provide me an available time range?Thank you.

Best Regards,

Jeff Zhai
